

Position	Name	Photo	Bio
President	Bill White	 A portrait of Bill White, a middle-aged man with glasses and a mustache, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and a colorful patterned tie. He is smiling and standing in front of a bookshelf filled with books.	Bill White is an active member of GNPA, Smyrna Chapter. Bill began his love of photography in 1973 with a Pentax Spotmatic F. He is an avid and accomplished amateur nature photographer. In the past he has photographed weddings, dance recitals, other special events and member directories. Bill has been practicing law for almost forty years in the metro-Atlanta area. He is a Rotarian of twenty-five years and a past-president of the Rotary Club of Marietta Metro. He served as GNPA as President last year.

Vice President

Doug Flor

Doug is currently a Board Member (at large) of the GNPA, a member of the PPA, and a member of the Nikonians. He participates with the Griffin Chapter and occasionally the Hamilton Chapter. His real passion is landscape and wildlife photography, as well as macro.

Doug has served GNPA in several capacities, but has enjoyed conducting a couple of the GNPA Surveys of members in preparation for the Virtual Expo and in the follow-up surveys at the Virtual Expo. And he enjoys participating in various competitions and events.

When he is not out shooting, Dr. Doug is a semi-retired university instructor teaching courses in Psychology, Leadership, Counseling, Statistics, and Research Methods at Northeastern University (Boston) and Liberty University (Lynchburg).

Secretary	Ken Dunwoody	 A portrait of Ken Dunwoody, a middle-aged man with dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark plaid shirt. He is smiling slightly and looking towards the camera. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.	Ken spent 30 years as the Editorial Director for the 28 monthly editions of Game & Fish Publications, where he oversaw all of the editorial content for the top-selling outdoors magazine on American newsstands. Prior to moving to Georgia, he earned a journalism degree at the University of Illinois and worked as a sports editor and photojournalist for newspapers in suburban Chicago. He won his first photo award from United Press International in 1983, has been a member of the Outdoor Writers Association of America (OWAA) for 30-plus years, and is now a member of NANPA and the Roswell Chapter of GNPA. His photos have been selected in competitions such as NANPA's 2018 Showcase, and others sponsored by OWAA, GNPA, Callaway Gardens, Digital Photo Magazine, Fernbank Science Museum and Savannah Coastal Refuges Project. Wildlife photography is his primary interest, but he's also exploring landscape and macro photography.
-----------	--------------	--	--

Treasurer

Bill Hatherley

Bill has been taking photos since the 70's, starting out in film. Bill is a serious amateur and tends to take focus primarily on wildlife and landscapes. Bill has a business background, retiring in 2006 as a Manager of Computer Security Auditing for the Federal Reserve Bank. Bill has served as a Treasure in several non-profit organizations, including a national organization with 300 plus people. Bill has also volunteered on several boards and have served as a member of the Finance Committee for the approximately 3,000 home Windward Community Service Association. Prior to Covid, Butterscotch, my service dog, and I were regular attendees at the Roswell and Alpharetta chapters, however, we also attended many other chapter meetings. Now, I often attend Zoom meetings of many chapters throughout the state.

At Large Member	Marcia Brandes	 A portrait of Marcia Brandes, a woman with long brown hair and bangs, smiling. She is wearing a dark jacket over a yellow shirt.	Marcia Brandes is a charter member of the GNPA Conservation Committee and has been chair of the committee since January 2020. As well as writing a newsletter for the group and photographing many events for our conservation organizations, she has won awards in a number of GNPA photo contests. She has participated in GNPA Board Meetings as a non-voting member for the past 2 years and is a member of the Roswell chapter. Marcia was a partner for 33 years in a wall décor manufacturing company, Phoenix Galleries Inc., where she designed product, managed a group of in-house artists, laid out showrooms, and produced marketing and sales materials. She became proficient in Photoshop, product photography, and giclee printing. Since her retirement she has become an avid nature and travel photographer. She is also a Distinguished Toastmaster, on the Zoning Board of Appeals for Peachtree Corners, and writes articles for International Travel News.
----------------------------	---------------------------	---	--

At Large Member	Janet Newton		Janet is an active member of GNPA-Smyrna Chapter for over 9 years, Sweetwater Camera Club, NG3c & NANPA. She has been taking pictures since she was 12 where she started with a film camera and learned to develop in a darkroom. My artistic background extends back to high school art class and 4 years on the yearbook staff as designer and photographer. She was a Banquet Sales Manager and then retired as Human Resource Manager. Once retired she became a member of the Sweetwater Camera Club in 2012 and received Photographer of the Year 2013-14-15-19 & 20. She has held the position of President for eight years. She now spends her energy taking pictures in her communities events, the local museum, garden club, monthly magazine and newspaper. For two and a half years she wrote for the Community page in the paper about photography with pictures. The Local Newspaper "Reader's Choice Award" for Photography went to Janet four straight years 2018-2021. Janet's photography has been published in local, regional and international publications. She has been in numerous exhibits, fence galleries, Art Centers, the Capital and with GNPA's exhibits ie.; the Road to Callaway, Stand in Ansel Adams Footsteps, Double Vision and Alpharetta Chapter exhibit.
-----------------	--------------	--	--

			Janet is an avid gardener at her home in Douglasville of acres of perennials where she spends a lot of time in her backyard named, "Janaway Gardens", where she loves to photograph her flowers, butterflies, insects and visiting birds. Her yard is a certified wildlife habitat through the National Wildlife Federation. In 2020 through ArtPop Street Gallery, Janet was chosen to have her picture posted on a vinyl billboard for one year. in addition, she was on 80 digital billboards in 21 counties including the Atlanta Regional Airport. She was proud to be a nominee for the 2021 Governor's Award for the Arts & Humanities. Janet just completed being the Photography Chairperson for the Atlanta Botanical Gardens Metamorphosis exhibit of over 250 images. During our recent state's 2022 Arbor Day, she assisted with my photography skills of the planting five American Chestnut trees as part of a restoration effort.
--	--	--	---

At Large
Member

Ray Silva

Ray is a retired chemical engineer, originally from New England but lived in Virginia, South Carolina, Illinois, and Georgia. Currently residing in Central Illinois near family.

Has been a member of the GNPA-Coastal Chapter for over 5 years

Member of the Champaign County Camera Club and Photographic Society of America

Photographic works have been exhibited in GNPA shows in the Atlanta area as well as Savannah.

Ray has two prints that have been accepted to be exhibited in the "Stand in Ansel Adams Footsteps Competition 2021."

Markets artwork online through Fine Art America.

Enjoys Landscape, Nature and Astro Photography.

Past presenter at the Averitt Center for the Arts, GNPA-Coastal Chapter, KodaRoamers Camera Club, Champaign County Camera Club, and the University of Illinois Master Naturalist Extension.

At Large Member	Tricia Lynch	 A portrait of Tricia Lynch, a woman with short blonde hair, smiling and holding a professional camera. She is wearing a teal zip-up jacket. The background is a dark, solid color.	Ten years ago Tricia expanded her passion for her artistic expressions when she first purchased a Sony camera and the lessons included with that. That led to a thirst for more knowledge through workshops and classes at The Showcase School of Photography. She has served as Vice President on the Board for the Roswell Photographic Society with a focus on Programming and Photo Critiques. Tricia has enjoyed her membership with GNPA as it allows her to capture more of her interest in Nature Photography. When she is not out Photographing, she enjoys spending time with her husband Brad and her 3 grandchildren.
----------------------------	---------------------	---	--